

UGC-HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT CENTRE
KURUKSHETRA UNIVERSITY KURUKSHETRA
(Established by the State Legislature Act XII of 1956)

9. FEEDBACK OF THE PARTICIPANTS:

- Orientation Programmes touch the critical issues which have a major impact on human values.
- Resource persons invited during the programmes are very competent and have an innovative approach to their respective subjects.
- Participants' knowledge is enriched by thought provoking lectures of various eminent speakers who are invited from reputed institutions.
- Lectures and discussions during the programme ignite the scientific thought process of participants.
- Discussions are very fruitful during the programmes.
- These programmes provide an opportunity for coordinated research and scientific endeavors.
- Participants participate with great enthusiasm and zeal contributing to paper presentations, panel discussion and exhibiting their teaching skills.
- These programmes give the participants a new perspective, positive vision and deep insight to pierce through the intricate mechanism of the whole system of education.
- These programmes provide a platform which will really help the teachers in becoming an value oriented human being.
- HRDC plans to programmes not only systematically but also give the programmes a practical shape.
- Participants get a chance to interact with the resource persons to clarify their queries/doubts.
- By attending these programme they bring innovations in teaching and research.
- Programmes offered by HRDC are informative, interesting, meaningful, interactive and successful.
- Duration of the Programme should be short.
- Provision of One Day Casual Leave in each Programme
- Computer Lab requires upgradation.
- Latest software will be provided in the panel of Seminar Room.

DIRECTOR