KURUKSHETRA UNIVERSITY

General

Located in Kurukshetra, the land of the Bhagwadgita Kurukshetra University is a premier institute of higher learning in India. It is spread over 400 acres of land on the south bank of the holy BrahmSarovar. Its foundation stone was laid on 11 January 1957 by Bharatratna Dr.Rajendra Prasad, the first President of the Indian Republic. Since then it has aimed at pursuing excellence in teaching and research in science, technology, humanities, social sciences, performing arts and sports.

Today, Kurukshetra University is offering world-class education to students from throughout India and other countries by providing a learning experience designed to develop intellectual abilities, as well as social, moral and ethical values. The University is equipping its students with the skills, insights, attitudes and practical experience that will enable them to become discerning citizens.

The University's programs combine the enduring value of a liberal arts education with the skills and experience offered by professional departments. The University has 445 teaching faculty members. The University also has 457 affiliated colleges and institutes in the Districts of Ambala, Panipat, Kaithal, Yamuna Nagar, Hisar, Fatehabad, Jind, Karnal, Sirsa, Kurukshetra and Panchkula.

The Campus of the University has often been rated as one of the most beautiful campuses in India. It resembles a large, self-contained village with lecture theatres, seminar rooms, accommodation, cafeterias, canteens, shops and sports facilities, libraries and laboratories. The most remarkable feature of the campus is the seamless interconnection of nature and the built environment. There are a number of lush green gardens, water fountains and side walks which provide an ideal environment on the campus for study and leisure.

Accreditation by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC)

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), an autonomous body of the University Grants Commission to assess and accredit universities and colleges, has conferred an 'A' grade to Kurukshetra University. The peer team of the NAAC evaluated the university's performance based on criteria like curriculum, teaching-learning and evaluation, infrastructure and learning resources, student support and progression, governance and leadership, innovative practices and so on. The peer team in its report has specially drawn reference to the University's "commitment to impart quality education to the students of the state, concerted efforts to preserve and create awareness of the rich cultural heritage of the State and academic tranquility and residential characteristics."

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)

In the emerging global scenario of competition-focused education and training, quality sustenance and quality enhancement in the institutions has gained paramount importance. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell works to ensure quality in different activities related to academics and administration of the university. The Cell set up in the University has been effectively functioning for the last many years. Various improvement strategies based on feedback from the stakeholders like students, parents are recommended by the IQAC to ensure quality of our teaching research programmes.

Distance Education Programme

The Directorate of Distance Education meets the needs of thousands who wish to enroll for different courses. Today the Directorate is engaged in providing Under-Graduate and Post-Graduate education in about 35 courses having an enrolment of 39,000 students. In addition to conventional courses, the Directorate also offers professional courses in the areas of Computer, IT, Commerce, Management, Finance, Marketing, Law, Tourism and Hotel Management, Journalism & Mass Communication, Library and Information Sc., M.A. (Education) and B.Ed. (Two Year Course).

University Library

The University Library is centrally located and is an air conditioned three storey building having 49,230 sq. feet plinth area and its extension as Golden Jubilee Reading Hall having plinth area of 57,500 sq. feet is also under progress. It has seating capacity of 470 users at a time and remains open on 360 days from 9.00 a.m. to 12.00 midnight. The University Library has a rich collection of 339817 volumes in the stream of Sciences, Management, Social Science, Commerce and Humanities too. The Library ERNET Centre with 150 computers for the faculty members, students and Research Scholars has an internet connectivity of 512 kbps VSAT, 10 mbps & 2 mbps leased line. Library has also provided internet connectivity to almost all the teaching and non-teaching Departments, Hostels and the entire Campus through WI FI internet connection. In addition to this, under U.G.C.-INFONET E-Journals consortium library provides an access to 8453 scholarly journals. The Library has automated its in house activities such as library membership, circulation of documents, holdings of periodicals, catalogue as Online Public Access Catalogue (OPAC).

Corporate Resource Centre

The Corporate Resource Centre was established for a larger industry-academia interface in higher education at the university level. It is a Nodal Centre for faculty, academics and industry for mutual interaction and research. The Centre is aimed at seeking wider industry participation in the academic process particularly in research, course designing, and curricula delivery. The Centre helps and encourages faculty to seek industry assignments and uses the same to acquaint students with latest and updated knowledge and practices. This has also opened up possibilities of bringing real life corporate experience in the interactive teaching-learning in classroom sessions.

Dr. Radhakrishnan Foundation Fund

Dr. Radhakrishnan Foundation Fund was established in the year 1994 for raising donations/mobilization of resources etc. for the overall development of the University under Financial Resources Mobilization (FRM) Scheme of the University Grants Commission (UGC). The annual interest accrued to the fund is utilized for award of scholarship etc. to the students.

Sports

Kurukshetra University ranks third in overall performance in Sports in the All India Inter-University events in which about 250 Universities participate annually. The University's Directorate of Sports provides top class sports facilities, programmes and activities to enable the students to achieve and maintain a fit, healthy and enjoyable lifestyle. The university has a modern gymnasium equipped with 'workout' machines, a 50 metre swimming pool, a yoga centre, football, hockey and cricket pitches, tennis courts, volleyball and basket ball courts, etc.

The Sports Department organizes Inter-Collegiate Championships for men and women in different sports disciplines every year. The Sports Department also conducts coaching camps for the University teams for participation in the Inter-University tournaments. Tournaments like International Competitions, National Championships, Haryana State Games, Ranji Trophy Matches and State Championships are organized at the University. The University also organizes two/three North Zone/North-East Zone/All India Inter Universities Championships, every year. The University gives Awards and Sports Stipend to the outstanding sports persons.

Department of Youth and Cultural Affairs

The Youth and Cultural Affairs Department aims at providing opportunities, incentives and channels to students for making healthy, educative and constructive use of their leisure for self-fulfillment and excellence. The Department organizes various activities and programmes for the students of the University Post Graduate Departments and affiliated Colleges. Some of these include Basic Youth Leadership Camps; Advanced Youth Leadership Training Camps; Preliminary, Basic and Advanced Hiking and Trekking; Talent Shows, Youth Festivals, Haryana Day State Level Festival, Orchestra, Folk Festivals, Literary and Fine Art Events, Poetic Symposium, and film screenings by Campus Film Society.

Dharohar Museum

The University's museum, dedicated to the preservation of the region's cultural heritage, is now a nationally recognized institution. Through exhibits, publications, and special events, the museum presents the rich traditions of the region and gives new meaning to life in Haryana in a manner that is authentic and non-stereotypical. The second phase of the museum, which is nearing completion, will recreate in life-size arts and crafts of the region and the life lived by its people for centuries which are rapidly disappearing. Dharohar phase III being designed to international standards will be India's first museum dedicated to the first war of India's independence, the great uprising of 1857.

Hostel Facilities

The University at present has 22 Hostels- 9 for Boys, 1 for Foreign male students and 12 for Girls - on the sprawling campus of the university. These hostels have a capacity to accommodate 2500 girls and 2000 boys. Providing a comfortable and safe atmosphere to the students, the hostel facilities on the campus make it easy for the students to find a home away from their home. The girls' hostels provide all important facilities within the complex. Each hostel on the campus operates its own mess providing hygienic and nutritious meals with a varied menu. In view of the large number of applicants seeking hostel accommodation, the university allots hostels to the students on the basis of their merit in the admission list.

Health Centre

The University Health Centre looks after the medical needs of the students, staff and their families. Facilities for protective inoculation exist in Health Centre. Complete Physiotherapy unit, ECG, X-ray, Round the clock Ambulance facilities adequate laboratory facilities, Auto Analyzer facilities, Ultrasound facilities, Computerized ECG, EEG, Spirometry are also available in the Health Centre. A Homoeopathic Doctor and a Dentist are also available in the Health Centre. The University has more than 60 private Doctors with different specializations on its panel for consultation free of cost.

Women's Studies Research Centre

The Centre reflects the University's commitment to society and its policy of inclusive growth. The Centre is fulfilling its objectives of women empowerment through research, curriculum development, documentations, networking, providing counseling services and launching awareness programmes. The Centre offers two full time courses in Women's Studies - M.A. (Women Studies) two years (semester system) and PG Diploma in Women's Studies one year (annual examination). Gender Sensitization workshops are organized for various sectors of society including the development functionaries of the state. The Centre has also been working as a nodal agency to guide and monitor the functions of all Women Cells in the colleges of Haryana. The Centre is now a phase III Centre of the University Grants Commission making it one of the top few in the country.

Institute of Sanskrit and Indological Studies

The Institute of Sanskrit and Indological Studies was established in 1963 under the auspices of the faculty of Indic Studies. Initially it started the publication of Praci-Jyoti-Research Digest of Indological Studies (published annually), which is continuously serving the needs of scholars throughout the world and have brought out 42 volumes. The Institute has undertaken a Major Research Project, "A Word-Concordance of Mahabharata," which is to be published in Fifteen Volumes. So far six volumes have been published.

National Cadet Corps

The University has a well-equipped contingent of NCC Battalion under the charge of experienced and trained officers of 10 Haryana Bn. NCC Kurukshetra. Separate arrangements have been made for boys and girls to facilitate them to join NCC. Apart from regular training parades, the Cadets attend NCC Camps for centralized training with their counterparts from other institutions. The Units prepare them for taking up the higher N. C. C. Certificate Examinations. NCC Cadets are also groomed for assisting the administration in the proper and orderly conduct of special events and in relief work in civic emergencies. The Unit also present brief programmes during the Republic and Independence Day Celebrations, and on special occasions such as the NCC Day. The University lays special emphasis on training students for the armed forces by arranging lectures and guidance programmes.

Mahatma Gandhi All India Service Coaching Institute

The MGAIS Coaching Institute was established in the year 1982 with the objective of providing coaching to SC/ST candidates preparing for Civil Services and other competitive examination. The Institute has been providing free of cost coaching to SC/ST students for ICS and other Central Services/State Services exams and National Eligibility Test. The Institute has also organized Seminars on Soft Skills and training programmes for Personality Development.

Dean Students' Welfare

The office of the Dean Students' Welfare provides a number of facilities and opportunities to the students. Some of these include provision of bus and train passes, subsidizing of student tours, etc. A major activity of the office is the Annual Public Speaking competition called Rostrum. Started five years ago to develop communication abilities among students, the competitions have become very popular. Several thousand students have been participating in this programme. The office also provides for the 'Earn While You Learn' Scheme - which essentially enables students to do some work in their departments on a token payment basis - to help students in meeting their education expenses. Several scholarships are also available for students mainly on merit but also on means basis.

International Students

In the age of globalization, Kurukshetra University has set out to make its presence felt globally through internationalization of its programmes and opening new avenues of association for global student community. With a view to assist international students, the University has an International Students' Advisor who helps the international students to understand the admission procedures of various university programmes, getting visa for admissions and also to help them live comfortably in the new environment. Every year the University admits international students sponsored by ICCR (Indian Council for Cultural Relations) and the details of admission can be downloaded from University website.

Gender Sensitization Committee Against Sexual Harassment (GSCASH)

The Gender Sensitization Committee Against Sexual Harassment was established in the University from the Academic Session 2005-06. GSCASH helps to implement the guidelines laid down by the Supreme Court of India in Vishaka Vs State of Rajasthan (1997) for prevention and deterrence of sexual harassment in the work place. Kurukshetra University is committed to providing a place of work and study free of sexual harassment. It is expected that all students will treat one another and visitors to the University with respect. Any one violating the policy against sexual harassment is subject to disciplinary action. The GSCASH has three major functions :

1. Gender Sensitization and Orientation.
2. Crisis Management and Mediation
3. Formal Enquiry and Redressal.

Sexual harassment can take place in various forms : some subtle, some indirect, some blatant and overt. For example :

- (i) It may be conducted towards an individual of the opposite sex or the same sex.
- (ii) It may occur between peers or between individuals in hierarchical relationship.
- (iii) It may be aimed at coercing an individual to participate in an unwanted sexual relationship or it may have the effect of causing an individual to change behaviour or work performance.
- (iv) It may consist of repeated actions or may even arise from a single incident.

Students can take help from the Committee (GSCASH) ; none should hesitate to ask for help. Speaking up may prevent others from being harmed as well.

Instructions against Ragging :

With fifty years of its existence, Kurukshetra University has earned recognition as one of the renowned centres of teaching and research in the country. We appreciate the parents and the students for their interest and option towards pursuing their higher studies at Kurukshetra

University. We wish them success in their plans towards getting admission in the programme of their choice on the campus. Those who succeed in joining a course, should be making best use of the excellent facilities and congenial atmosphere available in the University towards all-round development of their personality. We would expect our students to make best use of this opportunity and grow as able and responsible citizens. Students will be required to work hard with their energies focused towards achieving their goal.

We take pride in informing all those desirous of seeking admission, that over all these years, our University has the best traditions of maintaining a healthy and congenial academic environment. We are also glad to convey that with the determined and sincere efforts of our senior students and faculty, our campus has been free from the menace of Ragging.

What Constitutes Ragging : Ragging constitutes one or more of any of the following acts :

- (a) any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student;
- (b) indulging in rowdy or indisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student;
- (c) asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student;
- (d) any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or a fresher;
- (e) exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students;
- (f) any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by students;
- (g) any act of physical abuse including all variants of it : sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing absence and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person;
- (h) any act or abuse by spoken words, e-mails, post, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to fresher or any other student;
- (i) any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or any other student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student.

All the senior students are advised to guide and treat junior students affectionately.

Junior students may contact their Chairpersons or other University functionaries like Proctor, Dean Students Welfare, Chief Warden, Wardens or Chief Security Officer for help and guidance.

Instructions regarding Bonafide Residents of Haryana issued vide letter No.62/17/95-6 GSI dated 3rd October, 1996, No.62/32/2000-6GSI dated 23rd May, 2003 and No.62/27/2003-6GSI dated 29th July, 2003 by the Chief Secretary to Government, Haryana.

Subject: Bonafide residents of Haryana - Guidelines regarding.

I am directed to invite your attention to Haryana Govt. letters noted in the margin on the subject noted above vide which the instructions were issued regarding simplification of procedure for obtaining the certificate of Domicile for the purpose of admission to educational institution (including technical/medical institution). The matter has been reconsidered in the light of judgment delivered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Dr. Pradeep Jain vs. Union of India and others reported as AIR 1984-SC-1421, wherein it has been held that instead of the word 'Domicile' the word 'Resident' be used in the instructions issued by the State Government and it has been decided to revise the Government instructions. Henceforth, the following categories of persons would be eligible for the grant of Resident Certificate:-

- i) Candidates, who have passed the examination qualifying there for selection in an institution from a school/college in Haryana.
- ii) Children / Wards (if parents are not living) / Dependents: -
 - (a) of the regular employees of Haryana State posted in or outside Haryana State or working on deputation;
 - (b) of the regular employees of the statutory bodies/corporations established by or under an act of the State of Haryana who are posted in Chandigarh or in Haryana or outside Haryana.
 - (c) of the regular employees of the Government of India posted in Chandigarh or in Haryana in connection with the affairs of the Haryana Government;
- iii) Children/wards (if parents not living)/dependents of persons who after retirement have permanently settled in Haryana and draw their pensions from the treasuries situated in the State of Haryana.
- iv) Children/wards (if parents are not living)/dependents of pensioners of Haryana Government irrespective of the fact that the original home of the retiree is in a state other than Haryana or he has settled after retirement in or outside Haryana;
- v) Children/Wards (if parents are not living)/dependents of persons, who have permanent home in Haryana and include persons who have been residing in Haryana for a period of not less than 15 years or who have permanent home in Haryana but on account of their occupation they are living outside Haryana;
- vi) The wives of such persons who are bonafide residents of Haryana irrespective of the fact that they had belonged to any other State before marriage;
- vii) Persons who were born in Haryana and produce a certificate to that effect; provided that the parents/guardians (if parents are not living) of persons belonging to any one of the above mentioned categories are:
 - a) Citizen of India;
 - b) Produce an affidavit to the effect that they or their children/wards (if parents are not living)/dependents have not obtained the benefit of Resident in any other State.

- viii) Children & Wards of the accredited journalists residing at Chandigarh and recognised by Govt. of Haryana.
2. All candidates claiming to be bonafide residents of Haryana should produce a Haryana Resident Certificate signed by the District Magistrate/General Assistant to Deputy Commissioner or Sub-Divisional Officer (Civil) of the District/Sub-Divisions/ Tehsildars of Revenue to which the candidates belong. Resident Certificates in respect of elsewhere or in respect of the Children/Wards/Dependents of Haryana Govt. employees who are posted at Chandigarh, Delhi or elsewhere or in respect of Children /Wards/ Dependents of pensioners of Haryana Govt. or in respect of the Children/Wards/ Department of the employees of the Government of India posted at Chandigarh or in Haryana in connection with the affairs of Haryana Government, or in respect of Children/Wards/Dependents of the employees and retirees of the Statutory Bodies/Corporations of Haryana established by or under an Act of the State of Haryana or a Central Act and located at Chandigarh, Haryana or outside Haryana, should be by their respective Heads of Departments.
 3. Candidates seeking admission in educational institutions (including medical and technical institutions) located in Haryana, may not be required to produce Resident Certificate, if they have passed the examination from a school/college situated in Haryana. For this purpose, a certificate of the Principal/Headmaster from concerned institution where the children/wards studied last should be considered sufficient. The Principal/Headmaster of the institution shall be competent to issue such certificate, which should be sufficient.
 4. If a candidate is admitted on the basis of claim that he belongs to the State of Haryana but at any subsequent time is discovered that his claim was false, the student shall be removed from the institution, all fees and other dues paid up to the date of such removal shall be confiscated. The Principal/Headmaster may take such other action against the student and his/her parents/guardians as he may deem proper in the circumstances of any particular case.
