Notice

Date: 12 August 2024

All NSS volunteers of the Institute of Integrated & Honors Studies are hereby informed that we are going to celebrate Independence Day on Thursday, August 15, 2024. This significant event will take place within the university premises, and your active participation is encouraged and essential as we come together to pay tribute to our nation's hard-earned independence. By participating in this event, you will show your respect for the nation and contribute to the spirit of unity and patriotism that binds us all. The NSS has always been at the forefront of fostering a sense of social responsibility and national pride among students, and this occasion is no exception.

We look forward to your enthusiastic involvement. Let us unite in commemorating the 78th Independence Day of our great nation with pride and dedication.
