Dear Prof. Dr. Amit Ludri,

I am delighted to invite you to become a Member of the International Advisory Board of the “Observatory on Human Rights: Bioethics, Health, Environment” (ODUBSA) (www.odubsa.unisa.it), founded in 2010 and based at the Law School of the University of Salerno (Italy).

The Observatory is a network of scholars and experts committed to promote and support international cooperation in teaching and research in the fields of international and European law, human rights law, bioethics, health and medical law, environmental law.

So far, the Observatory has organized more than 40 scientific and cultural initiatives and 6 summer schools (2014-2019), run three international research projects and produced four edited volume. More projects and publications are underway and I would be honoured to count on your contribution and participation to the activities of this network, as well as on the support of the International Council of Jurists.

I truly hope that you will be willing to join ODUBSA and offer your outstanding expertise to improve the quality of our research and teaching activities.

Sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Stefania Negri
