One Day Camp & Cleaness Drive:

DATE: 16/10/2024

TIME: 9:30AM AND ONWARDS

VENUE: SH. GULZARI LAL NANDA CENTRE, KURUKSHETRA

A workshop and one-day cleanliness camp were organized today by the National Service Scheme (NSS) of Kurukshetra University, in collaboration with the Gulzari Lal Nanda Center and the Library. The event aimed to highlight the importance of cleanliness and community service, while also fostering a sense of personality development among children.

The opening session was graced by Chief Guest Dr. Krishna Devi, along with Dr. Suchismita, Director of Gulzari Lal Nanda Center, who created an inspiring environment for the program. Dr. Krishna Devi from the Department of Sanskrit also encouraged the participants and emphasized the significance of cleanliness.

Two key resource persons, Dr. Pradeep Kumar and Dr. R.K. Yadav, shared their thoughts on the importance of good health and living a stress-free life. Their engaging discussions motivated the participants to contribute positively to their communities.

After a healthy lunch, NSS volunteers engaged in cleanliness activities around the center and its surroundings, making a positive impact and contributing to the development of a well-maintained garden. In the concluding session, Dr. Mogil addressed the participants and NSS volunteers, praising their enthusiasm and hard work. He reinforced the importance of teamwork and leadership, explaining how every individual can contribute to promoting a clean and healthy society.

This initiative, through the workshop and cleanliness drive, not only highlighted the importance of cleanliness but also fostered a sense of responsibility among the participants, encouraging them to spread this message in their communities.

The event was attended by NSS UTD Program Officer Dr. Rajratan, Dr. Satish Kumar, Dr. Nidhi Mathur, Dr. Suchismita (Director, Gulzari Lal Nanda Center), and NSS volunteers Harsh, Meenakshi Kant, Kuldeep, Tamanna, Sonal, Preeti, Himanshi, and other NSS volunteers.
